GOVERNOR'S REPORT

Greetings Fellow Tribal Members:

As you all are well aware, this has been a very eventful spring and early summer. I want to thank the many Tribal members who took the time, and had the interest to vote in the latest elections. There was a very decent number of votes cast, and I want you to know I appreciate each and every vote cast, no matter who the vote was for. I do want to convey a special thanks to you all who cast your vote for me, and I will do my best to serve you to the best of my ability.

I know it has been a concern of Tribal members that the TEC Inc. Board of Directors were operating in a manner that upset many of you. In view of these concerns the Executive Committee has appointed three new positions to the Board of Directors, T.R. Kanuch, Brian Bush, and Philip Harris. These are all knowledgeable and experienced business men who are working diligently to help streamline the TEC Inc. operations, and help further the economic viability of our gaming enterprises.

Due to the Blood Quantum being lowered to 1/8th, the Tribal enrollment has increased by almost 10% since the referendum was approved.

Although it has been a long and sometimes controversial time concerning the new clinic, and the new casino at the Tribal Complex, these entities are nearing completion and if all goes well, will open for business on time and will help the economic well being of the Tribe.

Again thank you all for your interest in the Tribe, and I'll do my best to make the next two years both prosperous, and enjoyable to us all.

Respectfully,

George Blanchard

LT. GOVERNOR'S REPORT

We've had a busy month in many different aspects. As was reported in last months issue we informed you that the CPN had requested a rehearing on the Probate issue. On July 13th the Tribe received written notice that Judge Reeh had denied CPN's request. The CPN's only alternative now is to fill an appeal with the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA). To date we have not received notice that Chairman Barrett has chose to file with IBIA.

BIA Self-Governance Negotiations were held on July 18th. The full Committee attended the negotiations. The tribe did loose some funds; most of it was in the IRR Program. With the national deficit being what it is, I'm not surprised that we came up short this year, what did surprise me was that it wasn't as much as I thought it would be. I feel like, over all, we came out pretty good. Mr. Reinfeld was informed of the tribal ceremonies that usually occur around the annual negotiations and he politely accommodated the request to host negotiations without interfering with the Tribal Ceremonies. We appreciate his honoring the tribe's request.

On a lighter side the youth program had their stomp dance on Tuesday July 19th. The first annual AST Golf Clinic was held July 19th through the 21st. The Golf Clinic was held at the newly remodeled Horse Shoe Bend Facility.

Realty hosted a Records Management Training provided by Novella Hunt with the Southern Plains Regional Office on July 19th and 20th. There was a fairly decent turn out. Rachel Howell, Realty Director invited other local tribes. None of them showed up, but as far as complex wide we had several departments attend the training.

Isaac Gibson, Jr.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

To My Absentee Shawnee Tribal Family:

Thank you for electing me Secretary of the Absentee Shawnee Tribe. My opponent ran a good race, and with the help and attention of the election commission, the election ran smoothly with 343 votes. This number is comparable to the 357 voters in the last Governor/Secretary race in 2009.

The amount of support I received during the last few weeks of the election period was overwhelming and inspiring to me. I appreciated your telephone calls and emails wishing me well. Thank you for being open enough with me to tell me your stories, share your concerns, and tell me about your hopes and dreams for the future of our tribe. I hope that we can continue to keep the lines of communication open between us because I need to know what you are thinking. Again, thanks for electing me. I feel honored and blessed to represent you as your Tribal Secretary for the next two years.

I want to take this opportunity to thank Michelle Lopez for her many years of service to the tribe. She left behind an experienced staff of employees that will miss her, and we all wish her well for the future.

The swearing in ceremony was held a few weeks ago and I have been in office for three weeks as of this report. I've moved into my new office and I've had a chance to meet with my staff. In addition to my duties and administrative responsibilities as the Secretary, the following departments of service are assigned to the Secretary: Enrollment, Management Information Systems (MIS), Procurement, and Communications (Telephone, Receptionist). In addition, I have oversight of the Smoke Shops in Little Axe and Harrah, Country Kitchen Restaurant in Little Axe with the Absentee Shawnee Economic Development Authority (ASEDA).

In the next few weeks I plan to meet more extensively with my departmental directors and employees to gain a better understanding of our role in providing needed and necessary services to the tribe. The goal for the next few weeks will be to ensure we are working effectively and efficiently, and to make cost effective adjustments to our work processes that will improve our services to others. It will be imperative that we utilize the ideas and opinions of our employees, and also seek out external input/feedback from others. The following new email addresses have been established as a way for you to provide us with ideas, comments, and feedback about our services at the Smokeshops in Little Axe and Harrah, Country Kitchen Restaurant in Little Axe, and the Absentee Shawnee website (www.astribe.com).

smokeshops@astribe.com
restaurant@astribe.com
website@astribe.com

Comments will be reviewed on a regular basis by the department directors. This is your chance to tell us what you think. Do you have a suggestion for the restaurant? Let us know. We've also set up a comment box at the restaurant for guest feedback. Think our website should be changed in some way? Let us know. We appreciate your feedback.

We feel like some improvements are in order for the restaurant and smokeshop operations. We are in the process of making some changes that will help us be more cost effective and increase revenue. We need to build up some cash reserves so that we can make some maintenance repairs that have been put off for some time. We have some equipment that needs to be replaced and the signage at all of these operations needs to be updated. We are also investigating the possibility of adding pay-at-the-pump gas service at the convenience store to increase traffic, improve revenues, and provide a needed service to the community and to casino patrons. Please utilize our Absentee Shawnee enterprises for your shopping and restaurant needs when you are in the area.

By the time you read this, the new casino in Shawnee will be up and running. Regardless of whether you wanted a Shawnee casino or not, the building is up and we have a loan to pay off. There is no turning back, so we must move forward and make it work. Our board has some new members with considerable casino experience and background. They are working with the casino management to ensure we are utilizing employees between the two casinos as efficiently as possible. Although a considerable amount of their time has been focused on opening the new casino, they are working on plans to improve the customer experience at the Little Axe casino so that revenues can be increased to help pay off the Shawnee casino loan at an accelerated rate. Paying off the loan early will save us a considerable amount of money. I know that some of the Executive Committee members feel they were not kept informed in the past about loan arrangements and the progress towards this new casino. Others in the organization think there were plenty of opportunities to know the details. I don't know everything that happened in the past, but I do know that I will do whatever I can to make sure this doesn't happen again. The casinos are our most important asset and where the majority of our revenue is produced. All of the Executive Committee members need to work together to make sure there is an overall understanding of where the casino is headed and how we are going to get there. I feel the current Executive Committee can, and will, work towards this goal.

There is a lot for me to learn in the coming weeks and months regarding state and national issues of importance to our Absentee Shawnee Tribe. I'm looking forward to the challenges ahead and feel optimistic for the future of our tribe.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Finance office continues our efforts in keeping the day to day activities flowing efficiently and effectively through communication between the Finance office and Programs. In working together, we have found the most time effective and cost effective processes for transacting business.

The 2010 Audit is complete and has been submitted to the Department of Interior and to the Federal Audit Clearinghouse as required. It includes the MD&A (Management Discussion and Analysis). The MD&A report is an informative report within the 2010 Audit; which is a brief review and explanation of the Audit. The Audit is an "unqualified" audit; which when compared to an educational grading scale is A.

The Indirect Cost Proposal for 2012 will begin within the next few weeks. Our rate is up from 17.74% for 2010 to 21.98% for 2011.

The finance department continues to complete accounting by the seventh day of the month and have been since August 2010; so that financial reports can be created for the Health Authority and Li Si Wi Nwi, Health Inc. boards for health programs both Shawnee and Little Axe. The Finance staff has begun June reconciliations for financial reporting; the July 4 holiday has cause a couple of days delay in the reconciliation process, but we will complete it by July 8, 2011. It is imperative the accounting / bookkeeping continue to stay ahead of all of the accounting so that audits go smoothly so that Indirect Cost rates will stay up to date as well. Indirect cost proposals cannot be submitted without completed audits as the audits are used to calculate the proposal.

We continue to explore avenues that will make accounting for the tribe's finances a smooth process including billing package for health programs.

There are many processes in place in your Tribe's accounting department that ensure we keep accurate records of transactions. The Tribe's accounting processes must be in compliance with GAAP; (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) and GASB (Governmental Accounting Standards Board).

The Tribe currently has compact funds of BIA and I H S, 51 Grants, and the new Clinic business.

The Absentee Shawnee Tribe's Finance Department has very hard working group of people and it is an honor to work with them, the Treasurer's office and at the Absentee Shawnee Tribe.

This department, as always, would like to extend a special thanks and note of appreciation to the Executive Committee for providing the tools, resources and support to enable the finance staff to reach its accomplished goals and to continue with this effort. The Finance Staff would like to congratulate Governor George Blanchard and newly elected Secretary, Teri Reed. A special thanks and note of appreciation to Program Managers and Employees of the Tribe for their assistance and dedication in our group effort toward accomplishing our goal. Now that we are caught up, we are dedicated to continue our efforts in this direction.

If you have any questions or needs, please call 405-275-4030 ext 162 and I will be glad to assist you in any way I can.

Respectfully, Belinda Collins,
Controller

ALLNATIONS BANK

Hello to all:

Someone stated to me the other day that they did not open an account with us because they did not want the other members to know their business. Let me assure you that no one other than bank employees will know that you have an account with us. If someone happens to see you going into the bank, they might assume you have an account; however, no one can find out anything about your account unless you tell them. There are very strict laws governing your personal information. We at AllNations Bank are very aware of those regulations and we do not share your information with anyone who does not have legal rights to that information. Your personal information is safe with us.

We have many different types of accounts that will fit almost any type of need. We understand that it is hard to change banks. To make it easier, we are going to buy your first order of blue or gold Smart Pak checks. This offer is good until the end of September. To take advantage of this offer just tell the new accounts person that you are a tribal member. We have some checking accounts that are free of service charges. With free checks and free checking, how much easier could it get to open an account?

The bank offers many different types of loans. If you need to borrow money, give us a call or drop by and talk to one of our friendly personnel. Most loan requests start with an application for credit. You can pick one up at the bank or call and ask us to mail you an application. After you fill out the credit application, we do run a credit report to see how you have done with other lenders in the past.

What you should know about your credit score. Your credit score is a number that reflects the information in your credit report. Your credit report is a record of your credit history. It includes information about whether you pay your bills on time and how much you owe creditors. Your credit score can change, depending on how your credit history changes. Your credit score can affect whether you can get a loan and how much you will have to pay for that loan. Your credit score can range from 309 to 844. The higher your score the better your chances are of getting a loan and at a lower rate of interest. Handling your obligations in a timely manner will help you get and keep a higher score. If you have questions about your credit score or need to ask someone about your ability to qualify for a loan, please come in and talk to us – we're here for you. When you bank with us, you support your tribe.

FROM THE ELDERS' CORNER.....

by Cynthia Longhorn, Secretary

Hello to all Absentee-Shawnee tribal members, elders, soon to be elders but don't want to admit it and to our younger people who want to know what we old folks have been up to! My sincere apologies for not submitting informational articles for our newspaper for such a long time but let's be honest here we have had problems with our newspaper deadlines for some time now but at this point in time, we have all been assured by the announcement on the front page of the July newspaper that the regular deadline is now firmly established to be the 25th of each month. In the months past, the deadline was changed so much that our news would be over a month old when finally published and received! I will do my best to submit information on a regular basis in the future. For now, I will offer a recap on meetings past. The January 15, 2011 meeting was held at the Resource Center in Little Axe and the high point of the meeting was the election of officers. Dan Little Axe, Sr. was elected President. Gene Parker, Vice President, Betty Watson, Treasurer, and I am happy to say that I maintain my position as Secretary. A quorum was established with 30 members present. Invocation was given by Mildred Switch. Birthdays were recognized for Gene Parker and Stella Little. Minutes of the December 18, 2010 and October 12, 2010 meetings were approved. A fund raiser 50/50 raffle was held and won by Frankie Watson. A chili/stew fund raiser of January 14th held at the Title VI Building in Shawnee had earned $276 for the council. Invocation was given by Governor George Blanchard. Birthdays were acknowledged for Serena Daugherty, Cynthia Longhorn, Reta Harjo, Pauline Johnson (celebrating 85 years!), Helen Wilson and Lee Roller. The subject of the required audit was discussed and it was agreed that Alice and Bill McBride would be appointed for this task as well as a member of the Executive Committee. A motion was approved to have more than one person count votes for the Outstanding Elder and Volunteer in the future.

The March 12, 2011 meeting was held at the Resource Center in Little Axe. A quorum of 38 members was present. Invocation was given by Elroy Alford. Thursday June 30th, 2011
TRIBAL ELDERS COUNCIL

The First Annual Inaugural Ball sponsored by the Absentee Shawnee Elders Council was a huge success!! We, the Inaugural Ball Committee, comprised of Mary Birdtail, Dora City, Margaret Ellis, Rita Harjo and I, Betty Watson had set a goal of raising $1,000,00 for the Elders Council and we exceeded that amount!!

If you were not able to attend you missed all the festivities and decorations with the theme designed from our Tribal Seal. Red, black and yellow balloons were scattered all around the ceiling, tables were decorated with white table coverings with a black table runner and a tribal seal at the center of the table, as the focal point with red, black and yellow balloons tied to a red, black or gold star next to the seal decorated each table. Music was provided by Isaac Gibson and Calvin White's "Uncivilized Band". The first dance was started by newly elected Governor George Blanchard and his wife, Sue, along with elected Secretary Teri Reed and her escort.

In attendance were the Executive Committee members, Treasurer Kathy Deer and Lt. Governor Isaac Gibson., the AST Elders Council Chairman Dan Little Axe, Vice Chairman Gene Parker and Treasurer Betty Watson.

We would like to acknowledge the following sponsors who contributed to the success of this event: Thunderbird Casino for the use of the Warrior Room, the delicious food, decoration supplies and printing our flyer and program; and monetary donations from All Nations Bank, Sonic Drive In-Little Axe, Thunderbird Veterinary Hospital, Barthelemy Auction Service & Trading Post, Naboltz Construction, Country Boy Market and the beautiful white roses corsages provided by Shirley Adkins for the newly elected Secretary Reed and Election Commissioner Birdtail.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 27, 2011

Department of Agriculture Issues Disaster Declaration in 74 Oklahoma Counties

OKLAHOMA CITY – The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) today issued a Secretarial disaster declaration in 69 Oklahoma counties and five contiguous counties. The declaration came in response to a June 10 request by Governor Mary Fallin, who asked the USDA to issue a disaster declaration in order to help farmers hit by drought and wildfires.

Seventy-four Oklahoma counties are currently covered under the USDA declaration. Nowata, Craig and Ottawa counties are not.

According to the USDA, a Secretarial disaster designation makes farmers in designated counties eligible to be considered for federal assistance from the Farm Service Agency (FSA). That assistance includes FSA emergency loans and the Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payments (SURE) Program. Farmers in designated counties have 8 months from the date of a Secretarial disaster declaration to apply for emergency loan assistance. Farmers interested in requesting additional information should contact their local FSA office.

“The weather has made this an extremely tough year for Oklahoma farmers,” Governor Fallin said.

“This declaration will help those who have been hard hit by drought and other bad conditions to get the assistance they need.”

HEALTHY WEIGHT – IT’S NOT A DIET, IT’S A LIFESTYLE

It’s natural for anyone trying to lose weight to want to lose it very quickly. But evidence shows that people who lose weight gradually and steadily (about 1 to 2 pounds per week) are more successful at keeping weight off. Healthy weight loss isn’t just about a “diet” or “program”. It’s about an ongoing lifestyle that includes long-term changes in daily eating and exercise habits.

To lose weight, you must use up more calories than you take in. Since one pound equals 3,500 calories, you need to reduce your caloric intake by 500–1000 calories per day to lose about 1 to 2 pounds per week.<sup>1</sup>

Once you’ve achieved a healthy weight, by relying on healthful eating and physical activity most days of the week (about 60–90 minutes, moderate intensity), you are more likely to be successful at keeping the weight off over the long term.

Losing weight is not easy, and it takes commitment. But if you’re ready to get started, we’ve got a step-by-step guide to help get you on the road to weight loss and better health.

Even Modest Weight Loss Can Mean Big Benefits

The good news is that no matter what your weight loss goal is, even a modest weight loss, such as 5 to 10 percent of your total body weight, is likely to produce health benefits, such as improvements in blood pressure, blood cholesterol, and blood sugars.<sup>2</sup>

For example, if you weigh 200 pounds, a 5 to 7 percent weight loss equals 10 to 14 pounds, bringing your weight down to between 186 to 190 pounds. While this weight may still be in the “overweight” or “obese” range, this modest weight loss can decrease your risk factors for chronic diseases related to obesity.

So even if the overall goal seems large, see it as a journey rather than just a final destination. You’ll learn new eating and physical activity habits that will help you live a healthier lifestyle. These habits may help you maintain your weight loss over time.

In addition to improving your health, maintaining a weight loss is likely to improve your life in other ways. A study of participants in the National Weight Control Registry* found that those who had maintained a significant weight loss reported improvements in their physical health, their energy levels, physical mobility, general mood, and self-confidence.

Besides being overweight or obese, here are other risk factors to consider—

- Cigarette smoking
- High blood pressure (hypertension)
- High LDL – cholesterol (bad cholesterol)
- Low HDL – cholesterol (good cholesterol)
- High triglycerides
- High blood glucose (sugar)
- Family history of premature

heart disease

- Physical inactivity

For maintaining a healthy weight or help with quitting smoking please contact the Absentee Shawnee Diabetes Program and Community and Preventative Services for physical activity plan, nutrition, and smoking cessation at (405)878-4702 or (405)360-0698.

Thunderbird Casino

THUNDERBIRD CASINO 2: The dream becomes a reality... after all these years... national recognition for an extraordinary feat of accomplishment from two (2) General Managers.

The Thunderbird Casino located in Norman, Oklahoma has been open since 1987 and like many Tribal Casinos started out as a Bingo Hall. The Absentee Shawnee Tribe has made attempts of opening a new facility however that has never developed in the twenty (20) years of business.

Thunderbird Casino went through many changes during its time of operation. The casino at one time offered concerts, boxing events and even a tough man contest or two. As the years went by the Indian Gaming Industry was growing and beginning to prosper throughout the United States. The Absentee Shawnee tribe made efforts to continue to grow to compete with other casinos in the area. The passing of Class III gaming in 2004 provided another form of gaming revenue to the Thunderbird Casino... Blackjack & Poker! The Thunderbird Poker room opened in 2005 and was well accepted with enthusiasm and excitement from guest and employees alike. The Thunderbird Casino was generating more revenue and business was great. Then in 2007 the bottom fell out... Thunderbird Casino remained open for business just barely surviving and attempting to pay the bills.

Two new faces appear at the helm:

Drew Word & Kurt Williams began their employment in January of 2008 and first thing they did was to evaluate the financial problems with the casino and started to make all efforts to find a solution to bring back a once profitable business from the brink of bankruptcy. Drew & Kurt continue to work diligently and have not lost focus on the road to financial recovery for the Absentee Shawnee tribe's number one revenue generating business. These two (2) men have been able to accomplish more in a short period of time than seemed possible. The Thunderbird Casino has been transformed from a 20 year old Bingo Hall to a modern day casino. This transformation has come in a short period of their employment. Drew & Kurt have been working on developing a plan of action for a new casino property almost simultaneously with the remodeling of our current facility. The plan of action has been successful and the dream of a new casino will finally become a reality after all these years. The construction of the new facility has begun and if not for the diligent work ethic and business knowledge of these two men the Absentee Shawnee Tribe would have closed the doors on a casino that has been in operation for 20 years prior to their employment. The Thunderbird Casino will be celebrating 24 years of being in business this year and thanks to Drew & Kurt we will be celebrating with the opening of our second casino also!

National recognition:

Their leadership and tremendous job performance along with the accomplishment of providing the Absentee Shawnee Tribe with another gaming facility has earned Kurt Williams & Drew Word the honor of being named Indian Gaming Magazine, a magazine distributed throughout the United States, Extraordinary Employee for the month of July! This is a well deserved honor for both of these men.

The road to financial recovery began on the day of their arrival and has been an ongoing process.

Submitted by: Eric Spoon

KURT WILLIAMS – JULY'S EXTRAORDINARY EMPLOYEE

Kurt Williams

Indian Gaming magazine has named Kurt Williams Extraordinary Employee for the month of July 2011. Kurt is Co-General Manager of Thunderbird Casino in Norman, OK, alongside Drew Word.

Hired in January of 2008, Kurt has made great strides in reshaping Thunderbird Casino, helping turn the property around and make it more competitive in its region. "This team has accomplished more in a short period of time than seemed possible," said Eric Spoon, Manager on Duty at Thunderbird. "They have transformed a 20-year-old bingo hall into a modern day casino."

Part of Kurt's background is working with companies that have financial difficulties. Though one of the first gaming properties opened in Oklahoma, it hadn't been generating the desired revenue stream. "Our initial responsibility was to do a market analysis and see what Thunderbird's market niche needed to be," said Kurt. "Over the last three and a half years, we've been able to double our monthly revenues."

One of the first projects they undertook was a complete overhaul of the property's casino-management system, replacing the existing system with the Aristocrat Oasis system. "It's a major project under any circumstances," Kurt said. "But for us it was a major step forward in being able to track our players and market to those players based on their level of play. We got a lot of accurate information out of that project. It was one of the biggest projects we've undertaken."

Another project Kurt is working on is the development of an entire new facility in Shawnee, OK, which will be the tribe's second gaming property. Plans for this new facility were developed simultaneously with Thunderbird's overhaul and the casino will be set to open in August of this year. "Being able to get through projects of this size, manage projects of this size, and finish them successfully is very exciting," he said. "It feels pretty good at the end of the day to complete these projects and complete them right."

Kurt credits much of the casino's success to the employees he is surrounded by, who have shown outstanding dedication to the property. "The team is very focused on customer service and making sure our customers feel they're getting the most for their money." ♣

ABSENTEE SHAWNEE WINS COVETED TITLE OF MISS INDIAN OKLAHOMA 2011-2012

(Contributing to story among others: Madeline Watkins-St. Gregory's University)

Devon Frazier, a sophomore at St. Gregory's University in Shawnee, Oklahoma, says she "felt completely honored" when she heard her name called for the "prestigious title" of Miss Indian Oklahoma 2011 at the Oklahoma Federation of Indian Women's annual pageant in McAlester, Oklahoma.

"My first reaction was to look at my mom – who made me stay up night after night to perfect and critique every little detail – and I knew I made her proud whether I had won or not," Frazier said in a statement. She is the daughter of Lisa and Rick Frazier.

This spring Frazier was chosen for the title by a panel of judges based on her performance in several areas, including personal interview, essay, traditional dress, talent, platform, academics and her answer to an impromptu question. The theme of the 2011 pageant was "Honoring Our Mother's Journey by Keeping Our Eyes on the Future and Our Hearts in the Past." Frazier's essay and speech stressed the importance of preserving the lessons of our forefathers and active involvement in our tribal communities for cultural preservation.

Unlike conventional pageants, the Miss Indian Oklahoma pageant, developed by the Oklahoma Federation of Indian Women (OFIW) in 1973, functions as a means of fostering and preserving Native American culture and is open only to young women who are enrolled tribal members. The objective of the Federation is to create a bond of friendship among the members, to promote action of purpose in preserving the cultural heritage and identity of each Indian tribe, and to develop ways of depicting the Indian woman as taking her place in the world today. Frazier is the only Absentee Shawnee to ever hold this title. She also has affiliations with the Choctaw, Delaware and Caddo tribes. Native Americans represent 8.6 percent of the total population of Oklahoma, according to the U.S. Census Bureau of 2010.

Frazier introduced herself to the judges in the Shawnee language. She wore the traditional dress of the Absentee Shawnee people which she described to Catholic News Service (CNS) as "nomadic wear" since the Absentee Shawnee people migrated from the eastern part of the United States.

For the talent portion of the pageant, Frazier chose to perform the song "You Raise Me Up" by Josh Groban and interpreted it in sign language. She said she felt it best captured the theme of the pageant. "I wanted to show that what my ancestors (my mother and grandmother and women before me) did for the future generations was really inspiring."

According to the pageant's custom, Frazier was presented with a silver crown and cedar box. In addition to winning the overall title, she also placed first in the Academic Achievement category. Her reign will last one year. As Miss Indian Oklahoma, Frazier will travel to events both locally and nationally to represent native women of all tribes. She has already been asked to speak at several speaking engagements, including the Kickapoo Tribal Prevention Youth Group, Choctaw Nation Determination Camp, and the Tulsa Powwow Club. She was responsible for leading the arena grand entry for the Red Earth Festival and leading the royalty in the parade.

"I am most excited about representing native women of all tribes, and especially those of the Absentee Shawnee Tribe". "This is a tremendous opportunity for me personally and I feel truly blessed to be able to reach out to others on issues that are important to Native Americans."

She is a 4.0 sophomore studying history at St. Gregory's, a Benedictine liberal arts university founded in 1875. Frazier attended Little Axe High School and was an Oklahoma Academic Scholar, Female Scholar Athlete of the Year 2010, and she won numerous awards for softball and track. She received an athletic scholarship to attend St. Gregory's University, where she pitches for the SGU Cavalier's softball team. She also is involved with several student initiatives on campus, including the Native American study group, and she hopes to start a Native American leadership student group in the near future.

"We are very proud to have an Absentee Shawnee hold this prestigious title and we know that she will do a great job in representing Native American women," said Governor George Blanchard of the Absentee Shawnee Tribe. "She is an exemplary young woman and represents the Absentee Shawnee Tribe, all Native American Tribes, and the community well in all that she does. We are pleased that she has this opportunity, and we support her fully."

In a June message to those involved in Native American ministry, Father Wayne Paysse, executive director of the Black and Indian Mission Office based in Washington, shared the news of Frazier's win and said: "She is certainly a role model for our Native American youth across the United States.

During her year-long reign as Miss Indian Oklahoma, Frazier will be visiting various groups, attending powwows, and speaking about the importance of preserving one's culture, especially among youths. She told CNS the challenges facing young Native Americans often have to do with education.

"I grew up learning if I wanted to make a difference, I would have to get an education to help my people," Frazier said. "To make a strong and definite difference you have to get an education."

According to the National Center for Education Statistics, the number of American Indian students enrolled in colleges and universities has more than doubled in the past 30 years. Nevertheless, the high school dropout rate among Native Americans remains the second highest in the nation, second only to Hispanics. Frazier said she recently spoke to a Kickapoo tribe about the importance of education.

"They have low high school graduation rates, which is troubling to me because I believe strongly in education."

Though unsure of her plans after college, a news release from from St. Gregory's noted that she is considering becoming a teacher herself. "I have thought about numerous possibilities such as a teaching career or working with the Absentee Shawnee tribe," she said. "Whatever I do, I know that I want to help other people, because that is something I greatly enjoy."

Thank you to the AST staff, several tribal members, my family and friends for your support and prayers through my medical emergency that resulted in a ten day hospital stay that took me away from my children, my job, and my everyday activities. The help you gave and are still giving through my continued recovery will never be forgotten. Many of you may also wonder if this Aug. newsletter was “forgotten”. My apologies for the delay of this newsletter. I understand the importance that the newsletter information carries to so many of you. However, thank you so kindly for your understanding. Summer is coming to an end....a new school year is beginning; this can be a stressful time for your child. Especially for those who are starting their first year in elementary or if your child is going into middle school or high school. New teachers, bigger classes, more homework and different daily routines are few factors that your child is stressing over. As a parent there are ways you can help your children to cope.

- Model enthusiasm for learning. Be excited and eager for the new school year, your child will be too.
- Expose your child to every opportunity to learn. Have age appropriate books, encyclopedias, dictionary or atlas available. Take family trips to the museum, zoo or go on a nature hikes.
- Take your child on a tour of their school, meet teachers and administration. Show respect and support for your child's teacher and school.
- Be attentive and active in parent/teacher conferences, open house, school plays, fundraisers and sports events. It's more beneficial for parents and child if both parents attend school functions.
- Read to your child, make daily reading a routine. Encourage independent reading.
- Set realistic expectations for your child's achievement and behavior. Encourage your child to stretch within his level of ability. Let children know you are proud of them and everyone makes mistakes.

- Create a balance for learning within your family. Have structure, routine and sense of responsibility in the family for learning. Allow time for play and relaxation.
- Have specific area set up for homework, free of all distractions. Be available for help but avoid being directly involved with their homework.
- Ask your child how his day was and what his day consist of at school. Ask to see their papers and other projects, going over them together.
- Know your role as parent and your child's role as the child.

Remember that every child is different and have different levels of learning. Be realistic of your child's learning ability and to encourage them. When parents are involved with their child's learning it shows; I care about you, I believe in education, I support you and encourage you to reach your highest potential in education.

FOLLOWING IN OUR FOOTSTEPS

The "Following in Our Footsteps Program" (Meth/Suicide Prevention Initiative Grant) held their summer Retreat on June 7th, 8th, & 9th 2011 at the Arrowhead Resort in Tahlequah, OK. Thunderbird Lodge was the lodging site for 28 children and 13 adult volunteers. The children ranged from 8 yrs - 17 yrs old. Everyone had the opportunity to swim and float the Illinois River by rafts.

The adult volunteers consisted of parents, grandparents, and extended family members in an effort to promote the family unity. Several volunteers were employees that included health professionals to provide medical care or treatment; also the cultural perspective was introduced in several settings from beadwork, storytelling, and nature.

The meth/suicide prevention initiative was provided in an educational setting with the 12 yrs and up receiving the more in depth education and awareness of meth and suicide. Behavioral Health conducted depression screenings during the educational process.

A big "thank you" to all volunteers: Manual Johnson, Sharon Ponkilla, Henryetta Ellis, Leroy Ellis, Chris Swanson, Ryan Hill, YVette Hill, Darren Shields, Angela Green, Sylvia Swanson, Alecia Onzawah-Atwara, and Allie Vargas. Special thanks to Kurt Williams, for the use of the Thunderbird Casino Bus; and to the other individuals that were drivers in the transportation task. We will be planning another retreat next year at the same time.

The MSPI Director attended the Cultural Competency training on June 21st and 22nd in Oklahoma City. The Action Summit for Suicide Prevention and the 2nd Annual Methamphetamine and Suicide Prevention Initiative Conference will be held in Scottsdale, AZ on August 1st - 4th, 2011. The Absentee Shawnee Tribe MSPI program was requested to help coordinate a National Suicide Awareness Walk at this national conference. Our "Walking for Life" MSPI walk was held at the Shawnee Mall last year. The time and place for this year's walk is TBA which could be in September or October.

Several MSPI "Following in Our Footsteps Program" activities are currently ongoing such as the music program with Phil Bradley and an incentive program at the YMCA. The horseback riding and special events at the ranch will return this Fall season such as hayrides, Halloween, and Xmas themes and other special events. All activities provided are to give children an opportunity to learn new alternatives for entertainment and recreation with their family. It also provides a time when we can educate the family about meth and suicide.

For more information please contact Jenifer Sloan, MSPI Director @ 878-4716.

Horse Shoe Bend Of the Absentee Shawnee Tribe

The Horse Shoe Bend Golf Clinic was held on July 19, 20, 21, 2011, from 8:00 am until 11:30 am, there were 25 participants that signed up and 21 attended for all three days. Clinic was guided by Jared Cody. Jared played as an individual golfer all through his high school years at Dale High School. During his high school golf career he went to state all four years and played in the Jr. PGA Circuit. After graduating Jared attended Campbell University of North Carolina and studied Professional Golf Management. Returning to Shawnee Jared played golf at St. Gregory's University.

A short video was played for the participants to watch before breaking into groups. A demonstration was conducted by Jared for each step. Participants had individual instructions on how to grip a club and how to stand to hit an iron, also each one was showed how to stand when hitting a wood. The first two days participants continue to work on gripping and standing when hitting with different clubs. On the third and last day participants had the opportunity to play on a golf course. We traveled to the Persimmon Hills Golf located in Meeker, Oklahoma. Participants went in groups with their coaches. Participants were excited to actually play on a real golf course and to ride a golf cart throughout the golf course. Hot dogs and chips, and soda drinks were waiting for the hot and tired golfers at the end of the golf session. Thanks to Mary Hardin for preparing the treats. Two golf carts were rented out for the two days at the Horse Shoe Bend Community Center to transport participants to the west field from Horse Shoe Bend Community Center. I would like to thank the following coaches that took time out of their busy schedules to help with the golf clinic. Roger and Deidra Loveland, Wynona Coon, Theresa Cody, Junior Little Axe, Steve Johnson, Dan Little Axe. Thanks to Christie Shaffer making sure all participants and coaches had cold drinks during this hot weather while being outside. Certificates will be mailed out along with a group picture to each participant, certificates was designed by Anne Wilson. I want to thank the two summer employees Dakota Blanchard and Randall Watson for all their help with the golf clinic and the Summer Tutoring Program. You guys have done an awesome job.

This golf clinic would not have happened without the maintenance department for their hard work of cutting the west field of the Horse Shoe Bend and help setting up the canopies and delivering and returning the golf carts. THANKS!!!

I like to also thank: "Following in our Foot Steps" (Meth/Suicide Prevention Intervention Grant) for their help with the participant $10.00 fee for the golf clinic and the beef franks for the hot dogs and the treats donated to the summer tutoring program.

Thanks to Lt. Governor Isaac Gibson and Representative Jeff Gibson and Rick Short, for your support helping make this golf clinic a success. Michael Berry for taking the group picture, Andy Warrior for driving the bus and making all the plans for the trip to the Persimmon Hills Golf Course.

Thanks to the Cobblestone Creek Golf Club, Noble, Oklahoma and Persimmon Hills Golf Course, Meeker, Oklahoma, Academy Sports + Outdoors, OKC South. BIG THANKS TO THE PARENTS TO OUR FUTURE 21 GOLFERS.

Oklahoma is facing a Prescriptions Drug Addiction and Dependency Epidemic.

While most people are familiar with the term substance abuse, many are unknowledgeable about substance dependency. In particular, physical dependency to opiate prescription pain killers such as Hydrocodone, Lortab or Oxycontin.

First it is important to understand the difference between substance abuse, addiction and physical dependency. An indicator of substance abuse can be described as anytime a substance is used at an inappropriate time or in an inappropriate amount. (A glass of wine with dinner is socially accepted and appropriate; a glass of wine with breakfast is not accepted and inappropriate). Addiction may be defined as a compulsion to use a substance despite the negative consequences it causes to self. (Expecting a drug screen in the morning and use marijuana the evening before realizing it will have negative consequences). Physical dependency may be defined as the tolerance of substances so that the absence of the substance prevents the body from functioning normally. (Withdrawals, DT, risk of seizures etc). Persons whom engage in substance abuse do not necessarily become addicted to the substances. (Drink to intoxication one night but has no daily compulsion to drink). Likewise, a person can become dependent upon a substance without engaging in substance abuse (Take pain medication as prescribed and become physically dependent).

According to the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Service Administration (SAMSHA): "there's a long history of discussions about whether addiction is a medical disorder or a moral problem. Decades worth of studies support the view that opioid addiction is a medical disorder that can be treated effectively with medications administered under conditions consistent with their pharmacological efficacy, when the treatment includes comprehensive services including counseling, treatment for co-occurring disorders, medical services, vocational rehabilitation and case management" (Dole and Nyswander 1976; McLellan et al. 1993).

Understanding opiate dependency and the medical model requires one to consider opiate addiction in context of other medical conditions that require the patients to change their environment and personal choices in combination to their medical treatment such as hypertension, diabetes or asthma. Consider the plight of a person diagnosed with diabetes. If a diabetic person does not change their eating habits to that recommended for a diabetic, they will likely continue to use insulin to function normally. Once a person whom has diabetes has developed healthy eating habits, they may taper their insulin accordingly with the supervision of their medical doctor. This is the approach utilized within evidence based opiate dependency programs, methadone programs.

The medical basis for methadone maintenance is described by Dole (1998) as: A corrective, normalizing neurological and endocrinology process in patients whose endogenous ligand-receptor function has been deranged by long term use of powerful narcotic drugs. Methadone is a harm reduction approach to opiate dependency and there is evidence based data gathered over many years that demonstrates its effectiveness in reducing HIV/AIDs, hepatitis B and C and tuberculosis. Newer drugs have also been found to have similar positive outcomes for the treatment of opiate dependency such as Suboxone or Buprenorphine. Unfortunately, while suboxone and buprenorphine are effective in treating the physical symptoms of opiate addiction, they are not part of an evidence based program governed by federal and state laws in addition to the DEA as methadone clinics.

The stigma attached to methadone treatment is strong and not often accepted among those in the medical community. Considering Oklahoma's well documented prescription drug abuse and opiate dependency problem it is important to consider facts about methadone programs compiled by reliable resources in evidence based programs.

1. Methadone treatment is associated with a significant reduction, but not necessarily cessation, of drug use for many.
2. Decreases overdose rates even in patients whom have not achieved total abstinence.

3. Significantly improved patient health and well-being including increases in employment rates and reduction in criminal activities.

Stigma impacts patients and programs in many negative ways including communities' reluctance to allow clinics to operate in needed areas, discourages patients from seeking dependency interventions and often attracts employees responsible for delivering services to use punitive approaches.

The stigma associated with methadone treatment can be improved through concerted efforts to educate the public of the evidence based outcomes that show the positive results of methadone treatment programs. Additionally, advocating for quality program services so that methadone patients are not forced into isolation within their communities as it relates to the negative stereotype associated with clinics. Finally, advocating for the utilization of evidence based programs within methadone treatment programs and attracting well trained and educated service providers to deliver the program services will support efforts to end stigma associated with methadone programs.

Whether one is for or against methadone as a treatment to opiate dependency the fact remains, methadone clinics are in operation in Oklahoma and they should deliver quality services to those receiving treatment. Opiate dependency may bring to mind homeless heroine addicts but this is an outdated stereotype. Methadone clinics are utilized by wealthy and educated persons employed in a variety of reputable professions including attorneys, nurses, educators and small business owners. Many patients on methadone clinics are battling addiction and dependency to opiates after experiencing a medical procedure or sustaining serious injury and receiving pain medication needed to promote recovery.

Any person in need of information or links to resources for substance abuse or dependency issues please contacts the AST Behavioral Health Department at 878-4716.

Absentee Shawnee Tribal Injury Prevention Program

The Absentee Shawnee Tribal Injury Prevention Program would like to pass on information regarding our program services we offer Native Americans living in our five county service area; Cleveland, Pottawatomie, Oklahoma, Logan, and Lincoln Counties. Motor vehicle safety including child passenger safety and elderly fall prevention are two main focuses for AST Injury Prevention.

Child Passenger Safety

According to National Highway Safety Administration, proper use of child restraints nationwide during the past 30 years has saved the lives of 8,325 children under age 5. An estimated 425 lives were saved by child restraint use in 2006. Research shows that child restraints provide the best protection for all children up to age 8; after age 8, seat belts provide the best protection.

Summer is upon us and families may be taking extra trips to attend family friendly events or enjoy family vacations. AST IP would like to discourage families to not use "hand me down" car seats if you aren't familiar with the seat's history; has it been in a collision, is it five years or older, or has it been recalled? Child safety is not something a parent should compromise so AST IP has partnered with SAFE Kids Oklahoma to bring safer options to your community.

The AST IP can offer free car seats to children enrolled in a federally recognized tribe, whose family is receiving state assistance; DHS Benefits or WIC. We require proof of enrollment, proof of address, as well as proof of assistance. We will not be able to provide "spare" car seats or to anyone other than the child's parent or guardian.

Elderly Fall Prevention

The CDC reports the death rates for Native American's in the US have increased from 69.87% in 2000 to 76.48% in 2005. Unintentional falls accounted for 81% of deaths of persons ages 65 and older. For those who are fortunate enough not to suffer a fatal injury during a fall, are likely to become less mobile, unable to live independently, and may suffer an early death. Elders are central to the well-being and cultural strength of our Native communities. They define our identity and continue to give us cultural wisdom. It is the duty of the Native American community to protect these vital individuals. All year long, the Injury Prevention Program would like to focus unintentional falls for elders because there are dangers inside the home not related to travel.

AST Injury Prevention Program offers healthy alternatives to growing older. A healthy diet and good exercise is an option we offer here at the AST health Programs. If you live in our 5 county service area, we have an on staff dietician as well as fitness specialists to help you manage weight, improve muscle strength and maintain mobility. Tai Chi is great for elders to maintain and gain mobility for healthy living. For More Information on any of the mentioned services give us a call or check us out online www.absenteeshawneetriben-sn.gov/ and follow the links "Fitness and Wellness" and "Injury Prevention Program."
