Title
SUSAN TIGER STATEMENT

Description

Narrative text

On Sunday August 9th 2020 at approximately 1000 hours, I, Officer Josh Bledsoe with the Absentee Shawnee Tribal Police Department received a phone message from Susan Tiger (I/F DOB: 7/9/85) in reference to threats and harassment from her brother Terrance Tiger (I/M DOB: 9/19/86).

Susan advised that Terrance has not been taking his fathers passing very well and that he 's lashing out at her. Susan advised that she lives in her late father's residence at 5400 144th Ave NE. Susan further advised that Terrance lives in the house behind her. Susan advised that Terrance has been tearing her and her fathers possessions up inside of the house , along with taking her possessions. Susan advised that he'e recently became aggressive towards her. Susan advised that when she attempted to question Terrance about the broken and missing items, Terrance advised her not to question him anymore or he would break more things , Susan's children were present during this encounter. Susan further advised that Terrance began yelling at her and blaming her for their father 's death. Susan advised that she packed a bag for her and her children. Susan told me that Terrance began knocking pictures off the walls , so Susan took her children and left.

Susan advised that she and her children returned to the house at approximately 8 P.M. Susan advised she came back to take her shotgun out of the house so that Terrance did not have access to it. Susan advised that Terrance got upset about that, and chased her and her children down the driveway as Susan attempted to drive away. Susan advised that once she was out of the driveway, Terrance threw a cinder block at her car while it was occupied with her and her children. Susan stated that she is in fear for her and her children's safety, and does not feel comfortable going back to her place of residence as long as Terrance is around .

Susan advised that she is going to attempt to obtained an EPO for her and her children's safety on Monday, August 10th, when the courts are open. I returned to service at approximately 1200 hours.

I, Susan Tiger voluntarily submit the following statement on this 9 day of Aug, 2020
On August 8 I, Susan, went and surveyed damage my brother Terrance has done since my dad has passed away. When I went back into my home to question Terrance, he raised his voice and told me to not question him or he will break more stuff. He intimidated me & my kids. We (my kids & me), packed an overnight bag & he cornered all of us & kept yelling at me saying, (Susan) killed your dad. We left after he turned around & started knocking pictures off the wall. We were gone until around 8pm. My kids & me went to meet my uncle at home. My brother Terrance, his wife Tiger & uncle were in the kitchen & so I got the bed from my uncle & my kids & me left. While walking out the door, Terrance followed me about & me taking a gun from my house. When I told him he didn't have a need for it I closed my car door & backed up out of the driveway. Terrance began chasing my car & when I put the car in drive, Terrance picked up a cinder block & threw it at my car w/ my kids inside.

Terrance has been destroying property all over since my dad has passed away. It has since come inside where we live & my kids & me are scared to go home.

It is unlawful to falsely report a crime. Will prosecute? (Yes or No) _____
